

Agnieszka Słomka-Golebiowska - EN

Agnieszka Słomka-Golebiowska is a graduate of the faculties of Banking, Finance and Management (CEMS) of the Warsaw School of Economics and Copenhagen Business School, she holds PhD in economics, and has completed a Harvard Business School & IESE programme entitled 'Value Creation Through Effective Boards'. Agnieszka Słomka-Golebiowska completed MBA Program at French Management Institute in Warsaw. Further, she is a professor of International Comparative Studies at the Warsaw School of Economics.

Agnieszka Słomka-Golebiowska started career in 2000 at Arthur Andersen, where she remained until 2002. In 2002 she was awarded a Fulbright scholarship to study at the Haas School of Business at the University of California in Berkeley under the patronage of Professor Olivier Williamson.

After returning from the United States, Agnieszka Słomka-Golebiowska undertook her doctoral studies at the Warsaw School of Economics, focusing on banking regulation and corporate governance. In parallel, in the years 2003 – 2004 she was Professor Assistant at Westfälisch Wilhelms-Universität Münster, Germany, where she researched and published on the relationship between banking and corporate governance as Roman Herzog & Hertie Stiftung Fellow. In 2006, she was appointed Director of the Privatisation Department of the Industrial Development Agency, responsible for ownership supervision.

In the years 2006 – 2008 Agnieszka Słomka-Golebiowska was a Member of the Supervisory Board of BUMAR and in 2006 she was Supervisory Board Member of Bumar's subsidiary Cenzin. She held Supervisory Board Member position at Bank BPH in the years 2008-2014. As of 2014 she is a Supervisory Board Member at mBank. Agnieszka Słomka-Golebiowska is also Supervisory Board member of TransEU as of 2018 and holds Audit Committee Member position at United Nations World Food Program – WFP.

Agnieszka Słomka-Golebiowska is the author of scientific papers in the field of corporate governance.